

Interview with Argitxu Noblia Richard

The journalist Amagoia Gurrutxaga Uranga conducts an extensive interview with Argitxu Noblia Richard, the protagonist throughout her life in numerous cultural projects and activities, in a new issue of the Living History series. The interview offers a major look back over the life of Noblia Richard: her childhood in Angelu; her university studies in Medicine in Bordeaux and initial contacts with the Basque student movement; her participation in the setting-up of Enbata; her career as doctor in Baiona; her family life, with two marriages and six children; founder and first President of Seaska in 1969; the internal and external difficulties experienced by Seaska in its early years; her participation in the setting in motion of a range of cultural projects: Elkar, Gure Irratia, the Sokoa company, the GFAM Lurra agricultural association, etc.; her political career: elected councillor of the Council of Baiona under the then mayor Henri Grenet in 1989, member of EAJ-PNV and President of Ipar Buru Batzar, member of EA since 2012; founder of the Bakea Bai association... Amagoia Gurrutxaga Uranga

Education and Language: in search of a whole

Xan Aire, coordinator of the Language Project in Seaska (Federation of Ikastolas of the North Basque Country), provides some outlines –starting from its current situation– that illustrate the future challenges facing the federation, from the Basque language to education, and from orality to Euskal Baxoa (university entrance test), in order to provide society with a more complete independent project. Xan Aire

News today

This gathers together cultural information focusing on the present from various areas and perspectives. This year we shall be closely following culture, sociolinguistic and globalization matters. This section draws on various specialists: Itziar Ugarte, Jaime Altuna and Ignazio Aiestaran.

Various authors