

Fast and slow waters. A look at critical LGBTB+ policies in the South Basque Country

The sociologist, Jokin Azpiazu Carballo, analyses current critical LGBTB+ policies by focusing on the one hand on what has taken place within the general context (both locally and internationally) and, on the other, on the discourse and practice pursued by groups and activists.

Jokin Azpiazu Carballo

Basque language filmmaking in the North Basque Country

The researcher in language and communication, Graxi Irigarai, analyses the sectorial, systemic and glottophobic obstacles existing in the North Basque Country to creating and producing films in the Basque language.

Graxi Irigarai

New language choreography: what do teenagers teach us about the current situation regarding language?

The anthropologist and sociolinguist, Jaime Altuna Ramirez, reflects on the current sociolinguistic situation via ethnographic research conducted with teenagers, with a view to analysing how age, gender and language are intertwined.

Jaime Altuna Ramirez

What challenges do we face as a Basque speaking host society? Alliances between local minority language communities

The doctoral student in Social Psychology, Leire Amenabar Larrañaga, analyses the situation regarding cooperation between minority language communities that find themselves on the margins of language infrastructures in the Basque Country, and offers a range of proposals as a way of dealing with the local reality.

Leire Amenabar Larrañaga

News today

This gathers together cultural information focusing on the present from various areas and perspectives. This year we shall be closely following culture, globalization and history matters. This section draws on various specialists: Shu Otero, Joanes Igeregi Santamaria and Cira Crespo.

Various authors